

Paul stood up and told them how he had encountered Jesus on the road to Damascus and become a Christian. Acts 26:1-23

Suddenly, Festus shouted, 'Paul, you are insane. Too much study has made you crazy!'

Paul replied, 'I am not insane, Most Excellent Festus. What I am saying is the truth. King Agrippa knows about these things. King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do.'

Agrippa interrupted him. 'Do you think you can persuade me to become a Christian so quickly?'

Paul replied, 'Whether quickly or not, I pray to God that both you and everyone here in this audience might become the same as I am, except for these chains.'

Then the king, the governor, Bernice, and all the others stood and left. As they went out, they agreed, 'This man hasn't done anything to deserve death or imprisonment.' Agrippa said to Festus, 'He could have been set free if he hadn't appealed to Caesar.'
